Mentorship Programs

Program Information:

Mentoring creates networks across the company for knowledge transfer; mentoring acts as a catalyst for a wide variety of talents; and mentoring boots a diversity of ideas and innovations.

Mentorship programs need to be highly customized to truly fulfill the needs of each organization. Bob Faw will share a wide array of best practices, tips and ideas from his experience coaching and training mentors and mentees at various organizations. Every program has been dramatically different. Strategically, this program will introduce the positive and negative aspects of mentoring in the workplace. In combination with Bob Faw and Brenda Labrie, a small panel of local Human Resource individuals will share the positive and negative aspects of mentoring in the workplace.

As part of the March 18th meeting, Bob Faw, has requested the Program Committee to reach out to Human Resource Managers who would be part of a small panel to discuss the pro's and con's of mentoring in the workplace. If you would like to share your experience please contact Theresa Noble at tnoble@naglergroup.com.

About the Speakers:

A partner in the firm, Organizational Growth Consulting, Bob Faw has been guiding the growth and development of organizations and individuals since 1988.
